SMETHPORT WINS KANE LOVING CUP

Bucktail Post of Smethport led the way in practically all of the athletic events at Kane last Thursday, American Legion Day.

Fifty-seven points were scored by the local track team, composed of the following: A. Gallagher, Paul Denning, William Howe, Roy Engstrom, Arthur McDermott and Howard Workley. Arthur Pickersgill competed in the high jump and pole vault.

The nearest rival of Smethport was Kane, with 30 points. Port Allegany was a poor third with 11.

The local athletes literally ran the opposition off their feet, winning with ease many of the events which Kane and Port Allegany had counted upon as theirs. However, the races were full of thrills, there being several hotly contested finishes.

Large crowds from Smethport visited Kane throughout the week, but more local persons were noticed there on Thursday and Friday, the latter being the day of the fantastic parade which was one of the most colorful displays ever seen in the county.

Local Legion men say that they were treated royally by the Kane Post, the Smethport firemen vouching for the same concerning their hosts earlier in the week.

Regret was felt concerning the loss of the baseball game between the locals and Port Allegany, but the following day this was offset by the splendid victory by the track athletes.

The result of the athletic events were as follows:

The winners in the various events at the track meet received gold, silver and bronze medals for first, second and third places. $950.00 CAR STOLEN FROM F. STRANBERG, COLEGROVE.

An automobile valued at $950—an Overland—was stolen from the barn of Frank Stranberg, of Colegrove, last Thursday night, some time after midnight.

Edward Stranberg put the car in the barn at midnight, and locked the building. The next morning the machine was gone.

Someone had evidently followed the young man home and picked out the car in particular, as another machine some little distance away on the same road was unmolested, although it was parked outside all night.

Word has been sent to the authorities at Harrisburg and other points in an attempt to recover the machine, but thus far no clues have been found.

M. BRESAN IN AUTO CRASH

With his lower jaw bone fractured in two places, his nose injured, his scalp lacerated and his shoulder wrenched, Morris Bresan, butcher, of Crosby, is in a very serious condition, following an auto accident Sunday evening.

Riding in the machine with Lloyd Mulvihill, Mr. Bresan was on his way home from the ball game at East Smethport.

In front of D. Haven's home, the car became unmanageable for a moment, and in the attempt to right it, it turned over.

Mulvihill was thrown clear of the machine, but Bresan was caught beneath it. The accident was witnessed by Mr. Hubbard, of Smethport, and the occupants of other machines nearby. They hurried to the assistance of the injured man. He was bleeding profusely from the mouth and ears. He was taken home by Zeke Comes, who lives nearby. Dr. Hamilton dressed the injuries.

CHANGES AT HIGH SCHOOL FOR BETTER FIRE PROTECTION

Smethport High School opened the year with about 125 scholars. This number is slightly smaller than previous years, but many pupils registered have not yet put in their appearance. However, when they start their studies it is likely that the classes will be equal in size to those of previous years.

Many of the pupils are from the surrounding townships, their eagerness to take advantage of the High School benefits being evidenced by their prompt and regular attendance.

An inspector of the state fire protection department visited the school recently and ordered quite a number of drastic changes in the classrooms to offset danger of a conflagration.

Practically all the doors of the school building must be re-hung so that they open outward, various specimen cases in the halls must be removed, and a large number of seats and chairs in rooms where overflow classes have been accommodated have been taken out.

CAR TURNS TURTLE AT BETULA; WOMEN OCCUPANTS.

One young woman was slightly injured and two others badly shaken up when the Ford automobile in which they were riding at Betula turned turtle.

Miss Iza Peeling suffered lacerations about the arm and other bruises, and Mrs. Robert Powers and Mrs. Thomas Peeling were the other occupants.

The accident occurred near the home of Mr. Cliff Thomas, and at the top of the hill there. The car went over while making a quick turn, it is said.

FORMER COUNTY TAX COLLECTOR VISITS THE MINER.

F. M. Adams, a former county tax collector, who lives at Duke Center, and who has been a constant subscriber to the Miner for the past 50 years, paid a pleasant visit to our office this week.

He has quite a number of friends in Smethport, having become acquainted on trips to the court house.

Mr. Adams' activity belies his 77 years, and he wears the insignia of the Grand Army of the Republic with justifiable pride. With a humorous twinkle in his eyes, he said he wanted it made known that he did not come to Smethport for either a marriage license or to make application for admittance to the county home.

After mingling with old acquaintances, he left on the evening train for Duke Center, [illegible]

TWO-MILE CHASE IN VAIN AFTER MEAN JOY-RIDERS

Pursued for over two miles Saturday night about 11 o'clock, after they had backed their car into and broken off the gasoline pump in front of the Anderson & Thomas garage, East Smethport, by Mr. Thomas in a touring car, an unknown man and a girl in a Ford delivery truck made their getaway by turning out the lights of their machine and darting down a side road into the darkness.

The "joy-riders" came toward East Smethport from Main street and started to turn around in front of the garage. The driver backed the truck into the gasoline pump, and upon seeing the damage he had done, put on all speed and headed toward Smethport.

Mr. Thomas quickly got into a car, but the truck had a long lead on him as he started in pursuit.

The truck darted into Water street, ran as far as Green's mill and then turned the corner and headed toward Farmers Valley down Main street. At top speed the machines left the town.

At Crossmire's crossing, the truck's lights were extinguished as Mr. Thomas' car began to gain upon it. Then it evidently ran down a side road and the pursuer could not tell which direction it had taken.

The gasoline pump was snapped off, the large electric light at the top smashed, and the pipe extending underground was cracked.

PRESENT FACTS CONCERNING ELECTRICITY PROGRESS

A full program by which electricity for Smethport is absolutely assured, the manner in which it is to be accomplished, and articles of incorporation, including a form of contract, have been made public by J. Clayton Backus, organizer of an electric trunk line from Portville to this place.

The paper was drawn up by the attorney for the County Commissioners, F. D. Gallup. The Commissioners at a conference on August 15 here with Mr. Backus agreed to pay $15,000 in advance for electricity to furnish the county buildings with light.

Mr. Backus desires that the general public take stock in the project, no matter how small the investment may be. This will make the interest in the movement a general one, and will not confine the stockholders to a few heavy investors. The paper, explaining the interest paid to stockholders, and the other details is as follows:

"Articles of incorporation for the forming of a trunk line company to build a trunk line from Portville, N. Y., to Smethport, Pa., borough line for the purpose of transporting electricity from Portville to Eldred and to Smethport borough line.

"The amount of stock to be sold is $25,000.00 and the trunk line company will sell electricity to Eldred borough at the same price Eldred borough would have to pay for the same to the Olean Electric Company delivered at Olean, N. Y., and the charge to Smethport borough will be just enough above cost to the trunk line company to pay the repair, replacement, maintenance and upkeep on trunk line and 6 per cent interest on the $25,000.00 invested, so that the stockholders will receive 6 per cent interest annually; the line to be maintained in first-class condition and kept in the proper repair at all times by the trunk line company, until 1942, or 21 years from date.

"On Monday, August 15th, 1921, The County Commissioners met and agreed to pay to the borough $15,000.00 in advance for electricity to be furnished to the county and county home and instructed their attorney, F. D. Gallup, to draw up the contract to be executed by the borough, trunk line company and County Commissioners.

"Smethport borough is to pay $25,000.00 to the trunk line company for an option to buy it out any time within 21 years from date for the actual amount the trunk line company has invested plus 6 per cent interest from the date of investment, plus the actual cost of maintenance of the trunk line, less any net income.

"Smethport borough will make the tax levy on the $33,000.00 bond issue of an amount that will retire the whole issue in 18 years; this will give a space of three years between the paying of the bonds and the expiration date of the option in which to hold another election for a bond issue of a sum sufficient to buy out the trunk line company, borough to maintain, keep in repair and operate its lines and plant within the borough during the term of this contract.

"For and in consideration of $1.00 the borough will agree that in case it fails to exercise its option within the 21 years that it will sell to the trunk line company any time after 21 years its entire interest in its electrical business, equipment, etc., for $15,000.00 and, in the interim will not dispose of any of its electrical business, equipment, etc., to other parties without first the consent of the trunk line company, or having bought out the trunk line company.

"Provided the Borough Council will pass a resolution or ordinance authorizing and legalizing the foregoing proposition substantially as set forth, I hereby agree to subscribe for $..... worth of the trunk line company stock and I hereby agree that I will not cancel any part of this subscription and further that I will pay same promptly at the end of 30 days written notice from the trunk line company. In case of oversubscription, the trunk line company reserves the lot to allot a lesser amount than subscribed for.

"In my opinion contracts prepared on the plan outlined above will be legal and binding on the parties thereto.

(Signed) "F. D. Gallup."

YEGGS BLOW OPEN SAFE AT PENNSYLVANIA DEPOT HERE

Two yeggmen, proceeding with professional confidence and a bold disregard of detection jimmied their way into the Pennsylvania railroad station at East Smethport about 3 o'clock Monday morning, blew open the safe with two charges of nitro-glycerine and got away with exactly $7.40.

Nearly $400 was in the safe, but the thieves failed to get even a good share of it.

All the while the thieves were at work, G. C. Douglass, postmaster at East Smethport, stood with a loaded shotgun at the window of his home, immediately opposite the depot, with his family watching what he could see of the proceedings, yet being undecided, he did not make known what he had witnessed until five hours later, after the robbery had been discovered by the railroad employes.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn I. Chase are also said to have seen the men about the building, watched their light and heard the sound of the explosions. They, also, were afraid of starting either a false alarm or risking injury.

It was not until 8 o'clock Monday morning that County Detective John Allison was notified, and he in turn telephoned the Bradford police. Later in the day, Detectives Jack Barnes, of Buffalo, and Lester Coons, of Olean, employed by the Pennsylvania Railroad, put in their appearance.

But the sleuths were then on a cold trail, and found few clues. They were greatly chagrined because the thieves got away owing to the alarm not being spread sooner, by those who heard the explosion.

Footprints leading to the rear doors of the depot proved conclusively that but two thieves entered the building. The door was forced and after getting into a baggage room, they then entered the agent's office, where the safe was standing.

The first charge of the explosive, had all appearances of a professional thoroughness, or at least a fair knowledge of "crackmanship." Soap was used, and safety razor blades were applied to inject the nitro into all the seams possible. Even the combination knob seemed to have been knocked off to furnish a niche for the explosive. The first charge apparently blew off the front top of the safe, but did not open the door.

Evidently not being satisfied with the result, the yeggs set another charge, which took them about half an hour, when the second explosion was heard. This charge also failed to dislodge the safe door, but perhaps being fearful that they had aroused suspicion, the intruders left.

According to the theory of the detectives, the first charge opened the top of the safe sufficiently for the thieves to reach down and catch hold of the till, in which $60 in cash was kept.

The money drawer must have slipped from their grasp with the exception of the $7.40 they managed to catch. The rest of the $60 was found in the lower part of the safe scattered among the debris made by the explosion.

Three hundred dollars in cash and checks which Agent Butzer was going to send away on Monday and had in readiness for transportation to the main railroad offices, was in a lower part of the safe, but this was in such a position that the robbers could not reach it.

It is is believed that some information concerning the presence of the money had reached the thieves and they were after it before it was sent away.

A number of very plain finger prints were secured by the detectives, and photographed for use.

The only clue to the appearance of the yeggmen the detectives have is that several persons living in the vicinity of the depot noticed two men about midnight on Sunday, apparently strangers. One a short dapper and slender man wearing a striped blue serge suit and tan shoes with cloth tops. The other was heavy-set, and some say, he had a large black mustache. They paced up and down in front of the depot for a time.

The detectives do not think, however, that these men did the safe-blowing, but feel that the perpetrators came in an automobile, which was parked a short distance above the postoffice about the time of the robbery.

A neat pile of burglars' tools was left behind.

The force of the explosion must have been very great. One part of the safe shot across the room and imbedded itself in a desk, and two others struck a stove and badly dented it.

Mr. Dougless' version of what he heard and saw was as follows

"My family and I were awakened by a low rumbling sound, which made us uncertain where it came from. We got up and I got my gun, and we watched from the window. Being uncertain what to do we waited.

"My wife suddenly said she saw two men over at the station, but I didn't and thought she was nervous and imaginative. Finally another explosion came, which was sharper than the first, only it did not seem so loud.

"We were still undecided, however.

"Then an auto came from the direction of King's Corners and slowed down in front of the station for a minute. Then it picked up speed and shot toward Smethport.

"Maybe this car was used by the robbers to pick them up and get them away quickly."

DROPS DEAD AT HIS WORK

Porter D. Ostrander, 73 years old, one of the substantial citizens of the community, droped dead Monday afternoon while at work on the Ormsby road. Dr. Ostrander, nephew of the deceased, was hastily summoned, but an attack of heart failure had been fatal.

Mr. Ostrander was born in Sweden Valley, and a few years later his parents moved to Smethport, where he has since resided. He made his home with his daughter, Mrs. Ray Abbey.

He attended the recent reunion of the Ostrander family at Galco Park, and was apparently in the best of health and spirits.

A large circle of relatives and friends who held the deceased in high regard because of his sterling qualities, were deeply shocked at the suddenness of his demise.

He was a charter member of the P. H. C. lodge.

The funeral took place yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the home of Mrs. Abbey. Rev. Arthur Gregson conducted the services. Burial was made in Rose Hill cemetery.

Those who survive are four brothers, Walter, Byron and John, of Port Allegany, and Delbert of Davis; three sisters, Mrs. F. C. Freeman, of Bradford; Mrs. Lewis Thomas and Mrs. A. A. Abbey, of Smethport; three children, Ray Ostrander and Mrs. Ray Abbey, of Smethport, and Mrs. John Courneau, of Kane; also five grandchildren.

YOUTH'S SCALP TORN OFF IN FALL FROM TRUCK.

The top of his scalp torn partly off when he fell from a truck near the sawmill at Keystone last week, a youthful foreigner was sent to the Bradford Hospital last week by Dr. Chadwick, of Smethport, after being attended at his office.

Although he was unable to talk plainly, due to his injury, the youth indicated that the truck upon which he had been riding suddenly stopped and he pitched to the ground and landed upon the top of his head.

His condition was so serious that the local physician deemed it advisable to send him to the hospital.

SMETHPORT HIGH SCHOOL FOOTBALL TEAM IN FIELD.

The football squad of the Smethport High School will begin practice next Monday with about 20 candidates.

All the material this year is light, so that the team will have to depend upon speed, primarily.

Nearly $200 worth of new gridiron toys has been ordered, and the team will be spick and span when it takes the field.

Bradford and Kane and other good teams have been scheduled.

GRIFFITHS MAY SUCCEED DeVALERA AS LEADER.

London, Aug. 29.—An unconfirmed report was circulated here today that Arthur Griffiths is to replace Eamonn DeValera as head of the Sinn Fein delegation when it goes to London again to confer with Premier Lloyd George.

The above report is significant not only that it appears to take for granted as a foregone conclusion that the Irish plenipotentiaries will go to London again, but because of the implied "shake-up" in the high councils of the SinnFein. Arthur Griffiths has been for years contrasted with DeValera as the more aggressive and more radical. He is generally credited with being the real founder of the SinnFein. When DeValera was in America, he was "acting president of the Irish Republic." Less scholarly than DeValera, he is more direct and his personality appeals more to the masses than does that of his reserved and austere chief.

CONFERENCE IN WASHINGTON TO SOLVE UNEMPLOYMENT.

Washington, Aug. 29.—Steps by the administration to prevent a winter of suffering due to unemployment were going forward today.

Secretary of Commerce Hoover was contemplating plans for a national unemployment conference which will be called by the President within the next few weeks. The President, it is also understood, has directed other cabinet members to consider the question of unemployment in order that the whole question and methods of remedying it, may be worked out in the cabinet, next week.

It is the plan of Secretary Hoover to have the unemployment conference in session during the early part of September in order that representatives of large industries, labor and the government may co-operate in an effort to produce the maximum employment. A survey of the unemployment situation will be made by the conference and it is expected that some measure of redistribution of labor will be worked out.

FAIR NEWS.

The Henry Copping Carnival will be one of the great attractions at the McKean County Fair, which is to be held September 13, 14, 15 and 16. In reference to this attraction, the Kane Republican has the following to say:

"The Copping Carnival, which was one of the main attractions during the American-Legion Firemen's convention in Kane, gave the utmost satisfaction. It is an extensive aggregation of amusement producing attractions and the paraphenalia of the entire outfit is bright and new. The carnival arrived in Kane Sunday morning in 15 cars, which were taxed to the utmost to carry their loads.

"The riding devices include a merry-go-round, mammoth Ferris wheel, airplane swings and that popular and laughter-producing device known as the "whip," which seems to be the big favorite and is loaded to capacity every trip.

"There are a dozen good tent shows, including the Old Plantation, Automatic City Freak Shows, Posing Dogs, which do some worth while stunts in living pictures. Over-the-Top is a mirth-provoking attraction and one to which every young man should be sure to take his sweetheart. He will know more about her when he comes out.

"The Automatic City is a sure winner with the children and many grown-ups marvel at its mechanical perfection. There is a big athletic show of wrestling and boxing. Zim and Zam are a clever pair of midgets and contrast strangely with the fat lady in the freak show.

"There are scores of stands selling every conceivable kind of carnaval merchandise, doll racks, fruit stands and various contrivances where you can try your skill with alluring chances of reward.

"There is no question but that Kane liked the Copping Carnival, the brilliantly illuminated midway, which extends for several hundred yards, being thronged each afternoon and evening.

"The carnival people seem to be a law-abiding lot and no complaints of crooked dealing were made public.

"The electric lighting system on the carnival ground turns night into day and from 7:30 to midnight each evening the shows, riding devices and stands did a rushing business."

A full program of the Fair will appear in next week's paper.

STATE GAME OFFICIALS ON WATCH FOR ILLEGALITIES

Kane, Aug. 29.—Monday, a delegation representing the State Game Commission arrived in Kane, consisting of the following officers: L. K. Hogarth, of Smethport, state game protector, with headquarters at Harrisburg; and game wardens, Carl B. Benson, of Mt. Jewett; Joseph B. Ross, W. F. Hamilton, Emporium; Elmer L. Pilling, Irvine; H. F. Wilson, Tionesta; F. F. Thurston, H. L. Beatty, Franklin; H. N. Fensthmaker, Clarion; H. Hilton, Perry; A. N. Schrader, Kittanning; D. A. Zufall, Punxsutawney; Wm. C. Kelly, DuBois; E. W. Turley, Weedville, and J. R. Hazlett, Galeton.

There were 15 in the party, including Jerald McCarthy, Mr. Hogarth's chuffeur, and all were guests at the New Thomson until Wednesday, although out very day on activities in the surrounding territory. They were looking for infractions of the game laws and it is understood that they found quite a number.

Their main quest was for firearms illegally in the possession of foreigners and they searched wood camps in the vicinity of James City with this object in view. One man was arrested and fined $27 and costs. This search for firearms among foreigners is an annual activity before the hunting season opens, as it prevents much illegal hunting.

Officers of the game commission find many foreigners in their travels who are ignorant that game laws exist. They will shoot any sort of a wild bird or animal for food and shoot them Sunday as well as any other day.

It is a wise law that makes it wrong for an unnaturalized foreigner to posess firearms, not only from the hunter's point of view, but also because that sort of citizen quite often settles personal disputes with a shotgun or revolver that is generally pretty rough on the other fellow.

COAL TRAIN WRECKS NEAR LEWIS RUN ROAD

Bradford, August 27.—Twenty-loaded coal cars were piled up at 6 o'clock last night when train No. 1653 on the Erie railroad eastbound from Mt. Jewett to Bradford was wrecked on Big Shanty hill about four miles south of Lewis Run, Pa. The long train of 55 cars was being hauled toward Bradford by engine No. 1653 piloted by Engineer Jack Wallace of Bradford and was followed by a pusher engine. A. G. Ray of this city was conductor of the train. Fortunately none of the crew of the train sustained injuries.

It is believed that a defective truck under one of the cars was responsible for the wreck. The first car to leave the tracks was located near the middle of the train. The other cars crashed into the cripple and piled high on each side of the track and down a very steep bank at one side. At the time of the crash, it is said the coal was thrown over a hundred feet into the air. The sight was described as similar to the havoc which might be wrough by the explosion of a gigantic shell

An investigation into the cause of the wreck will be held in Bradford this morning. Wrecking trains were working on the piled up cars and wreckage late last night and until the tracks are cleared Erie railroad traffic between Mt. Jewett and Bradford will be maintained over the B., R., & P. right of way by switching at Howard Junction.

CORYDON IS SWEPT BY A DISASTROUS BLAZE

Bradford, Aug. 29.—A disastrous fire swept the little village of Corydon, Pa., late Saturday night, causing property damage estimated at thousands of dollars. A garage, barn, three other buildings and two automobiles are reported to have burned before the headway of the flames was checked.

Residents of that village were in communication with the Bradford fire department with the request that the pumping equipment of the local department be held in readiness for a call, in anticipation that the entire village would be wiped out by the fire. No second request was made on the local department for aid, however, and the flames after burning the buildings in the immediate vicinity were prevented from spreading. It is understood the fire originated in the barn connected with the hotel at Corydon.

An effort to get into telephonic communication with Corydon last night to learn the extent of the damage was unsuccessful.

Corydon was the victim of a flood two years ago when the Alegany river became jammed with ice and overflowed, and at that time practically the entire population suffered loss or damage.

LIEUT. ROCHE HONORED BY POST NAMED FOR HIM

Bradford, August 27.—The body of the late Lieut. John C. Roche, in honor of whom the local post of Veterans of Foreign Wars was named, is expected to arrive in Bradford this morning on the Erie train, according to a telegram received by Mrs. J. A. Still yesterday. Lieutenant Roche, who was killed early in the war, was an officer in Company C, 6th U. S. Infantry, 5th Division, and was killed in action during the drive on Argonne Forest, October 14, 1918, just two weeks after he received his commission as second lieutenant.

Probably no other member of Company C, of Bradford was so popular nor held in as high regard by his comrades as the late Lieutenant Roche, who served with the local company in 1916 on the Mexican border, left with the command for Camp Hancock, Georgia, and was still a member during its trip overseas and in all the actions in which the company participated until after the battle of Chateau-Thierry; always serving his comrades in the capacity of mess sergeant.

The self sacrifice and untiring efforts of Lieutenant Roche to provide food for his comrades will never be forgotten as long as the memory of the deceased hero survives.

OLEAN PHYSICIAN BADLY HURT NEAR PORTVILLE

Olean, August 25.—Dr. Michael J. McCarey of Portville, who suffered a fractured sckull in an automobile accident near Riverhurst park late Saturday night, was brought to the Mountain Clinic for medical treatment. He has been unconscious the latter part of the time since the accident. Mrs. McCarey, who suffered a fractured right arm and left leg, is in the family home in Portville, six miles west of Olean.

Dr. and Mrs. McCarey were on their way home from Riverhurst Park, between here and Portville, where they attended the annual picnic of the Sacred Heart church, of Portville, and the Hibernians of Olean, when their auto collided with another. The McCarey automobile was overturned.

Dr. McCarey is the most widely known physician in this section, with an office practice of hundreds of miles.

YOUNG MAN KNOWN HERE KILLED AT PHILADELPHIA.

Bradford, Aug. 25.—Word has been received in Bradford that Tom Dolly, of Moorestown, N. Y., who was until a few weeks ago employed on the construction work of the Colegrove-Smethport road, was instantly killed last Friday in Philadelphia. While in Bradford Mr. Dolly and other workers on the state road stayed at the home of Mrs. H. S. Robbins on East Main street, and it was to Mrs. Robbins that the word came. The young man was about 22 years of age and while here made made many friends among the young people.

BACKWARD CHILDREN WIL RECEIVE SPECIAL INSTRUCTION

The inauguration of a special department for the training and inspection of backward and delinquent pupils will mark the opening of the Bradford public schools on September 6, according to the report of Superintendent Butterworth to the Board of School Directors at a regular meeting in the city building last night.

This innovation is a new departure of local school government and the introduction of this department into the schol system of Bradford is expected to provide valuable facilities for the special attention and training which many of the pupils in the grade schools require.

Miss Ethel Pease, who has been a teacher in the local schools for some time, recently returned from a special course which she took at the suggestion of the board of directors to qualify her for the duties of teacher and instructor in this new department.

The new department will be located in a large room in the brick school building in the Second ward which has been specially equipped for the purpose. The superintendent stated that in his opinion the special class would start with a membership of at least twenty pupils. It was stated that some of these require only a small amount of attention and special training before they can be returned to their respective classes. Other pupils, it was pointed out, would be placed in the new class for an indefinite period for the purpose of developing their particular faculties in an individual manner.

AUTO DIVES OVER AN EMBANKMENT NEAR KANE.

Kane, Aug. 27.—J. J. Donnelly, James Hines and Eli Rosenhoover, three well known Johnsonburg men, had a narrow escape from serious injury last night when their automobile plunged over the embankment just below the side of the brick works, below East Kane. Donnelly, who owned the car, was at the wheel when the car headed to the right side and went crashing over the bank, down through the brush and turned over on its side. He was the worst injured of the three, and while his clothes were almost stripped from his body he escaped with severe bruises and lacerations. Hines received a bad injury to the left knee, besides being somewhat bruised. Rosenhoover came out of it very lucky, he being only slightly bruised.

The men were brought to the Kane Summit Hospital soon after the accident by Joseph C. Bojalad, of DuBois, who was on his way to this city with a party of friends. The lights of the wrecked car attracted their attention and when they went to the men's rescue Donnelly and Hines were in a dazed condition. The third man was trying to render them assistance. The car, which is badly damaged, is still at the foot of the embankment. The men had been to Kane during the day to attend the celebration and were on their way home when the accident occurred.

PORT ALLEGANY WINS THE LEGION COUNTY CHAMPIONSHIP

Kane, Aug. 26.—Port Allegany defeated Bradford last evening and are now Legion champions. The crowd was likely the largest ever on the P. R. R. field and were treated to some good baseball. Red Farrell pitched for Port Allegany and Garrison for Bradford. Each pitched good ball, but Farrell got the better support. Farrell had a triple in the second inning with two men on, but was robbed of the runs by Miller being called out for cutting third base, or the score would have been larger.

Port's scores came in the third, when McDonald hit to right for a "homer" followed by hits by Gallagher and Cook and both scored on Danny's throw to catch Gallagher at third, which went through Moran, both scoring. Bradford tied the score in the fifth inning, but Port got three more in the sixth on Hanlon's pass, Miller and Resnor were safe on errors; Hanlon scored on a passed ball; Miller and Rezner moved up on Farrell's sacrifice and scored on McDonald's hit to center. The game was interesting, and the result seemed to satisfy the crowd.

SHEFFIELD COMPANY TRY OUT NEW GLASS MACHINE.

Sheffield, Aug. 29.—To the Sheffield Glass Bottle Company will go the distinction of being the first glass bottle plant in this country to try out a new machine for mixing, gathering and placing the molten glass in the molds for manufacture of bottles. Representatives of the O'Neill Machine Company, of Toledo, O., are at present installing the machine and awaiting the starting of the large tank to watch its operation.

DIES FOLLOWING INJURIES WHEN TRAIN HITS TRUCK.

Warren, Aug. 29.—Terribly caushed about the left side and with his skull fractured, Alfred Johnson, of Russell, passed away at the Warren General Hospital Saturday evening at 6 o'clock as the result of injuries sustained when the Frod truck in which he was driving with Frank Akeley, also of Russell, was struck by a passenger train on the river division of the Pennsylvania railroad. The accident took place in the Struthers yards on the east side near the Cornplanter refinery, where the men were on business.

EMPIRE OIL LEASE BOUGHT BY OLEAN MEN

Olean, August 25.—The Empire oil lease at Rock City was bought by Olean operators of A. J. Mooney of Knapps Creek it was announced today. The new owners are Arnold Stambaugh, R. A. Stambaugh and Joseph J. Lippert all of this city. The price was near $90,000, it was understood.

There are fifty-eight acres in the lease, with twelve producing wells. The new owners will make locations for six new wells, and the operations will extend until after the holidays

BEAR RUN DOWN BY AN AUTOMOBILE NEAR DuBOIS.

DuBois, Aug. 29.—Dr. W. C. Shaw, of Olean, N. Y., damaged his automobile in a collision with a bear while driving through the mountainous country of Elk county. The car was so badly dislocated that he was obliged to have repairs made before he could continue his trip eastward.

He said that though he had been told bears were quite plentiful in this section of Pennsylvania, he had his doubts as to the truthfulness of the story. He changed his mind when he saw a big black bear suddenly dash from the underbrush onto the road in front of his car.

A collision could not be averted, and while the bear was knocked a considerable distance, he lost little time in making his getaway, while the occupants of the doctor's car were badly frightened.

CELEBRATION AT COLEVILLE WAS LARGELY ATTENDED

Many hundreds of people went to Coleville the 24th to attend the festivities attending the formal opening of the new state road. A. R. Johnson of Bradford made the initial address and attributed the success of the venture to Col. Burns. Following the opening speech Mayor DeGoller, also of Bradford, gave a brief address and the remainder of the evening was given over to pavement dancing, music being furnished by the Citizens Band.

Lesser H. Cohn, chairman of the arrangements committee had prepared the site for the affair, gas lights illuminating the road while the speakers stand was provided with electricity. Venders of ice cream and other edibles were on hand and quantities of refreshments were sold. The road when completed will reach Smethport. It is a splendid pavement.

A young fellow by the name of Harris, who was driving to Coleville last evening to attend the festivities and in his great hurry collided with two cars and his machine was completely wrecked. None of the occupants were injured. The accident occured at the foot of Rew Hill at about 10 o'clock. Col. Burns and a party were returning to town and the car was slowly following another machine which had preceded it down the hill. The Maxwell car going in the opposite drection collided with the first car in attempting to pass at a high rate of speed. The impact threw the Maxwell off the road and the driver swerved back into the road just in time to strike the rear fender of Col. Burns' car, ripping the rear fender off and the hub cap of the rear wheel. The Burns' car was able to continue its trip but the Maxwell was wrecked.

WHEN DREAMS COME TRUE.

One night "Smiling Dick" Carney, a professional turf gambler, had a dream. The air was thick with hats. Headgear of every description floated in disordered profusion. The following afternoon, on arrival at the race track, the first name on the day's list of entries was Hatteras. It was a four-to-one shot, and Carney invested heavily on the tip.

The race started. Hatteras trailed slightly to the quarter. He was neck and neck with the leader at the half. He passed the three-quarter post half a length ahead. Then the entire bunch thundered down the home stretch past the exultant gambler. Carney was some distance from the post and could not determine the winner.

In a moment the result was announce.

"Sombero wins!"—Everybody's.

PASSING THE BUCK.

Kindly Old Woman—You are a very nice little boy to give your candy to your little friend.

Youthful Hard Guy—Aw, he ain't no friend of mine.

"Then why did you give him the candy?"

"The flies was botherin' me."—Youngstown Telegram.

A YANKEE ANSWER.

Men much in the public eye tend to develop a line of stock stories which may be used for evading leading questions. When a shipping reporter recently asked Chairman A. D. Lasker, of the Shipping Board, whether or not he would support certain proposed amendments to the La Follette Act, Mr. Lasker replied:

"That reminds me of Webber & Fields' act in which Fields starts a bank and invites Webber to deposit his money. Weber asks, 'But suppose I want it back and the bank hasn't got it?' Fields scratches his head and then demands: 'Now, how the ——did you ever think of such a question?."—Wall Street Journal.

THE COST OF SPEED.

Not the curse of speed, but the cost of speed.

That is the problem of the present age.

Why should anyone, in this era of progress and accomplishment dare say that speed is a curse?

But, again, who can gainsay the fact that speed is exacting a terrific toll of lives and non-fatal casualties.

The Insurance Press of New York shows that 12,000 persons were killed in automobile accidents, besides 1,000,000 non-fatal casualties.

These figures are indeed worthy of serious consideration, although it is doubtful that even though they are thoroughly digested, the impression will be but short-lived upon most of us.

In the columns of this paper this week one can see the too-numerous accounts of auto accidents among friends and those of this section. Each day, almost, something of the sort happens right in our midst, yet the example fails to make one heed.

Our Main street and our highways are daily and nightly made speedways of, despite the regulations to the contrary.

OUR TREATY WITH GERMANY.

With much skill Secretary of State Hughes has conducted negotiations with Germany through United States Commissioner Dresel in Berlin. This must be so, since the draft of a treaty which has been drawn up and signed by Germany's foreign minister has been received by most if not all of the members of our own foreign relations committee, including Democrats, with approval. Ratification cannot come until after the month's recess of Congress, but apparently the document will have smooth sailing.

It is really a preliminary treaty. It follows the lines of the peace resolution of July 2 last, and confirms all of the rights which would have been bestowed upon us had we accepted the Treaty of Versailles. The League of Nations features are definitely discarded; or, rather, to use the State Deparment's explanation, we are not bound by any of its provisions. We assume no obligations regarding boundary lines and the international organization of labor. We are entitled to participate in the deliberations of the various committees set up under the Versailles document but are not required to.

Since our late associates in war were sounded by the State Department and had no objection to offer to this separate arrangement with Germany, the outcome would seem to be satisfactory all around. It is a triumph for Secretary Hughes and the administration.

A commercial treaty will follow.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

MR. WHITE, CRITIC.

The latest statement of George White, Democratic national chairman, in which he criticizes the Republican Congress for taking a recess is peculiar. He talks without thinking, at least that is the conclusion one draws from the statement if one is at all informed about conditions he mentions.

The Democratic chairman accuses the special session of taking a recess without having accomplished the chief things which it was called to consider. Mr. White is too experienced a politician not to know that by taking a recess in Congress is expediting these matters, because it is affording the Senate finance committee opportunity to give full and undivided attention to the tariff and the tax bills.

Mr. White comletely forgets or chooses to ignore all of the constructive measures that have been enacted by Congress in the short time it has been in session, and is determined solely upon fault-finding, just as is Mr. McAdoo when he criticizes the Winslow Townsend bill, which proposes to make possible practices that were frequent and common when he was director general of the railroads.

SERVICE FOR TAXPAYERS.

Secretary of War Weeks is not so popular in Congress as he was; this because he has dispensed with the services of 21,174 civilian employes, a department legacy from Mr. Baker. Instead of winning the commendation of the statesmen in Washington for his great effort in the direction of economy, he has nothing but hard words. But if he has estranged them he has intrigued the general public which meets the payroll. He has proved himself a brave man and a good and faithful servant.

THEY'RE JOBLESS, THAT'S WHY.

American veterans of the World War enlist under the Spanish flag to fight against the Moors for 90 cents a day.

Certainly these American ex-service men can have no patriotic reason for fighting on the side of the Spaniards.

The real reason is that these ex-service men are jobless. Many of them feel that Congress—and back of Congress the nation—have failed in many ways to show appreciation of the sacrifices they made in their country's service.

Today hundreds and thousands of our ex-soldiers and ex-sailors would not know where their next meal was coming from, were it not for the kindness of relatives.

If these heroes have been forced to undertake the Hessian role, is not our failure to show proper gratitude the reason?

What's the answer? Every individual, every industrial and every governmental agency should unite to end the unemployment situation.—Olean Times.

LOCAL BUILDING CUT IN TWO AND MOVED.

The building which formerly was a combined store and dwelling owned by Mr. Paul Schoonmaker, on East Main street, has been cut in half and one portion moved a distance of about 150 feet. Mr. Schoonmaker expects to occupy one of the sections.

The work, which has been going on for some time, has attracted much attention.

The post office at Port Allegany is a second class office and there is a civil service examination in connection with the appointment. There were several other candidates for the post. Mr. Studholme stood high in the examination.

ABSENCE.

I never thought that heav'n would loso its blue
And sullen storm-clouds mask the gentle sky;
I never thought the rose's velvet hue
Would pale and sicken, though we said good-by.
I never dreamed the lark would hush
its note
As day succeeded ever-drearier day,
Nor knew the song that swelled the robin's throat
Would fade to silence, when you went away.

I never knew the sun's irradiant beams
Upon the brooding earth no more would shine,
Nor thought that only in my mocking dreams
Would happiness that once I knew be mine.
I never thought the slim moon,
mournfully,
Would shroud her pallid self in murky night.
Dear heart, I never thought these things would be—
I never thought they would, and
I was right.

FIVE SCHOLARSHIPS GO TO CATTARAUGUS.

Salamanca, Aug. 29.—The state department of education has announced lists of those eligible to university scholarships, to five of which Cattaraugus county is entitled.

In the list of eligibles in this county, Cecil Rosenberry, of Red House, stands third. He is a graduate of the Salamanca High School and was president of his class. The first five on the Cattaraugus county list are: Helen M. Peavy, of Franklinville; Glenn S. King, of Olean; Mr. Rosenberry; Otto Payne, of Randolph, and Ruth T. Studholme, of Olean.

Human Interest.

What a wealth of romance and pathos; of vain ambitions and broken hearts; of care-free folly and the sadness that is to come; of thoughtlessness of the future and the remorse of old age; of wrecked lives and the final extinguishing of the light that burned but dim—all to be found in the heart of the tenement or rooming-house section of every large city.

Are you one of those who scarcely knows that such an atmosphere exists. Who are ignorant of the types who dwell there? Or who do not care to find out.

Butts of Fate's jests they are—these thousands that dwell in the sections we speak of. It is the dumping ground and the melting pot where foreign immigrants first seek to breathe the air of freedom, where strangers and wayfarers seek shelters, and where all natures are thrown together either because they seek better things through economy of that life, or because of lack of ambition they are not excited to get out of the rut of squalidness and unending poverty.

Shabby thousands are housed in cramped quarters breathing the stifling hot summer air, heated and fouled by too many breaths; in the winter, the same thousands shiver in drafty, ramshackle houses beneath insufficient bed-coverings, but sleep the night through, though the wind mourns outside and loosened panes commiserate in warped frames, adding to their discomfort.

Pale, thin-faced children are unheard and unloved. They grow up like weeds creeping unnourished beneath the bricks of the side walk, and many times they stray too far into the street where the traffic is thickest, and are trampled under foot because they were not warned. Poor darlings that know of no better life, and will reach maturity some day with no broader viewpoint than those who have grown up before them.

The slinking thief divides his spoils, and hides his share beneath a loosened board in the bare floor, as he awaits the call of the law to bid him open he door. He is dragged away to jail, but his going seems not to set an example to his fellows, who are due to follow him behind the bars.

The "dope friend" twitches and writhes when he's "broke," and can get no more of the drug that seems more precious than life. His nerves seem knotted and his soul is aflame with a fever of desire for the "god" that he serves, and only the mercy of a friend enables him to shoot the drug into his system that be many become likened to a human being once more for a short time.

The woman of the underworld laughs and sins, sinking downward toward a hell of degradation, carrying the soul of men along with her; here she makes her weary early morning way with heavy head and heart, after the night of luring smiles and maddening laughter.

The ambitious youth from the peaceful country-side first there makes his way because of his low finances. He is at once disillusioned by the drab atmosphere of the city as he finds it, and when he meets with reverses, the soiled gas jet upon the wall looms up as the "best way out." If he escapes that course, he finds a way to forget his troubles through degradation, and also forgets the traditions of his former life. Perhaps he is rescued before he drinks the drugs of life's bitterness, and is placed upon his feet once more, wiser and warier.

The ager, afflicted and crippled peer from dirty third-story windows into the streets, wishing for youth or strength, or the death they look upon as a blessing. They remember pleasant events that are past, and dwell mournfully upon their present condition. Despair then takes hold of those weary souls and they slip away from a faded existence, leaving their sordid world behind.

NEW REGULATIONS FOR CONTROL OF HUNTING DOGS

Harrisburg, August 24.—As a matter of information to dog owners, special attention is called to the present status of the law permitting the training of dogs as follows:

Under the latest amendment of section 26 of the game law, dogs may trained upon any of the living wild game or birds, excepting elk, deer, fawns and wild turkeys, when accompanied by and under control of their masters from the 1st day of September to the 1st day of March next following, Sunday excepted, so long as no firearms usually raised at arm's length and fired from the shoulder are carried and no injury is inflicted upon the said animals or birds.

Another feature of the same section imposes a penalty of $10.00 for every day dogs are permitted to chase game during the close season and $5.00 for each game bird or rabbit killed without notice of any sort to owners to restrain dogs.

We wish also to call attention to the fact that dogs should at all times wear a collar to which is attached a metallic tag or plate on which the name and address of the owner is given in plain English; otherwise the dog may be killed without any notice if found chasing game during the close season for such bird or animal.

DIRIGIBLE'S SAFETY DEVICES CONDEMNED, IT IS SAID.

Chicago, Aug. 29.—The giant dirigible ZR-2, wrecked in England with a loss of 46 lives, was equipped with safety appliances which had been condemned by the United States Army Air Service, according to Maj. R. W. Schroeder, former chief test pilot of the service, and holder of the world's altitude records.

Schroeder declared the type of parachute with which the ZR-2 was equipped had been condemned by this government after a British air officer using one had been killed in a demonstration at Dayton, Ohio.

Airmen throughout the country, according to Major Schroeder, are wondering why the United States men aboard the ZR-2 were not equipped with the tree-type parapack which has been adopted by the Army and Air Mail Service. Schroeder believes most of the men would have been saved if they had worn this safety appliance.

Schroeder also declared it "surprising" that the weak parts of the ZR-2 were not developed by tests on the ground before the ship was permitted to fly.

WONDERFUL NEW YORK GIRLS

English Visitor Pays Tribute to Feminine Portion of the Country's Great Metropolis.

The New York girl is an energetic worker, and a very cheerful person into the bargain, declares a writer in the London Daily Express.

The stenographer on her way from Brooklyn to the fiftieth floor of the Woolworth building, always looks happy—just as smiling and charming as when she is on her way home in the evening.

Here is the difference between the ordinary London girl and her opposite number in New York. Mabel, who works in the Strand and lives at Wimbledon, fades out of the picture after her work is done, but Irene, who taps away "downtown," rushes home by train or subway, gets into her best clothes, and proceeds to have a good time.

Her vitality is extraordinary. She never seems tired, and to see a carriage full of New York girls in the evening chuckling over "Mutt and Jeff" and the scores of comics which the evening papers contain is a sight calculated to give the grumpiest of us a more cheerful outlook on life.

She always seemed to me to be a thing for admiration, because New York is so big, so utterly bewildering, and so inhumanly hurried, that a fair-haired slip of a girl, crushed almost to death in the subway, yet always smiling—and always chewing!—is a hard person to frighten.

She is American—young, hopeful, and a good thing to have known.

History as She Is Wrote.

The following choice bits of information were gleaned from a history test in one of the lower grades of the Indianapolis schools:

"The downfall of Rome was caused by the lady that set Rome afire." This pupil was no doubt slightly confused as to the sex of the ruler who fiddled while Rome burned.

"The downfall was caused because the Romans began to drink tonics."

"Franklin was the first man to feel electricity."

"Moses was the king of Britain."

"To help your city if anybody does wrong blame it on yourself."

"Columbus lived in the U. S. and sailed all around the world and found America."

Shark-Fishers Make Money.

The shark-fishing industry at Mayne Island is an industrial success, according to a report from Vancouver, B. C. Twenty to thirty sharks are not an uncommon day's catch. The creatures are of the mud-shark variety and range in weight from one to three tons. The skins, flesh and oil of these fish are all adaptable to commercial uses.

Firestone

Again Reduces Price

Extra Size 30x3½ $16.65

Now $ 13.95

Firestone first made the low price of $13.95 on the Standard Non-Skid, May 2. Unusual purchasing power through big volume of business, and the great efficiency of its $7,000,000 Plant No. 2, manufacturing exclusively 30x3½ size, made this possible. Now, the production of the Extra-Size 30x3½ tire has been transferred to Plant No. 2. This permits the price reduction on this tire from $16.65 to $13.95. No such value has ever before been offered tire users. If your dealer hasn't the Extra-Size in stock ask for our Standard Non-Skid type at the same price. You will still be getting an unusual tire value.

Cords That Don't Blow Out

You feel secure on Firestone Cords. Because Firestone Cords don't blow out. Your repair man will tell you he hasn't seen a blowout this past year—10,000, 15,000 and 20,000 miles, and the tires still going strong. See your Firestone dealer today. Name below.

Firestone Cord Tires are being sold at lowest prices in cord tire history: 30x3½—$24.50 32x4—$46.30 34x4½—$54.90

SMETHPORT LOSES TO THE BOLIVAR BASEBALL CLUB

Smethport baseball team went to Bolivar Sunday, got three hits and lost the game. However, even though they did not get but three singles, the locals would have won had not Coach Tull in his eagerness to make a double play in the third inning allowed a pop-fly to roll leisurely out of his hands.

Bolivar then scored three runs in that inning and tied the score, after Smethport had chalked up four runs in their half of the third.

Haines pitched for Smethport, and was going great guns until he was hit on the arm, which took the pep out of his speed and curves.

Tull, Kohn and O'Brien were the only members of the local team to hit safely off Andrews, the Bolivar hurler.

The score was as follows:

RECEIVES LETTER COMMENDING THE BUCKTAIL POST.

Adjutant Paul Hallstrom several days ago received a letter from Mrs. E. Augusta Freeman, whose deceased husband was a member of the famous Bucktail Brigade of Pennsylvania troops in the Civil War.

The letter is a follows:

Smethport, Pa.
August 27, 1921.

As I am leaving for Custer City tomorrow I meant to leave a letter of remembrance in memory of Mr. Freeman, my husband, so am enclosing a check for five dollars to be used by the Bucktail Post.

I have a sincere feeling for the Bucktail Post; and also for the legion. May they prosper in all they undertake. Whenever I can I shall be glad to help them. You may rest assured that I shall always have a kind feeling for them.

Very truly,
Mrs. E. Augusta Freeman.

L. K. HOGARTH HELPS TRAP BEARS IN POTTER COUNTY.

Animals Shipped Elsewhere For Game Purposes—Manner of Trapping.

A bear weighing 300 pounds was captured in Potter county last week by Chauncey A. Logue, trapping instructor for the State Game Commission, and under the direction of L. K. Hogarth, state game protector of Smethport. The animal was true to the specimen of the Pennsylvania black bear.

Several weeks ago another bear was trapped by Mr. Logue. This one had a large white spot on its breast.

The bears are shipped from Potter county, where they are plentiful, to Cambria county, where they are not so numerous.

The manner in which the animals are trapped is by building a sort of low log hut about three feet wide and about two or three times that long. The bait used is either honey or fish, both being delicacies in which bears revel. The animal enters the trap, seeking the food, and the door drops over the opening, securing Mr. Bruin.

Then it is that the trapper, who has gained a wide reputation for his work, plays a very delectable role by going into the trap and securing the bear by tying its legs with stout rope.

The bear is unable to turn about to attack because of the narrow quarters, and therefore Mr. Logue has a comparatively easy time because of long experience in dragging his quarry out and putting it into a a cage for shipment.

ARMED MINERS ARE AGAIN ADVANCING BELLIGERENTLY

Charleston, W. Va., Aug. 30.—Armed miners are reassembling at Marmet, 10 miles from here, where the original march to Mingo county began, according to reliable reports this morning. Adjutant General Charnock estimated that the number of men on Boone and Logan county borders at least 1,500 and states more are arriving hourly. All telephone wires are cut. No communication.

Striking miners whose march to Mingo county was called off last week have again left their homes and are moving into Logan county in big and little bands. For the most part these miners are trickling over the line into Logan county and into the district into which Sheriff Benchafin, of Logan county, said, "they shall not pass."

Some are making the invasion on foot, but the majority are going by train and automobiles.

All day Monday and last night and late Sunday striking miners from the Coal River region were passing through Madison on their way to Logan county to join forces with the strikers there.

A train loaded to the limit, with men even on the cow-catcher of the engine, passed through here last night. The train was heading for Sharples in Logan county, where a clash occurred with state police Sunday morning. The invasion of Logan county is expected to result in bloody strife. Airplanes are reconnoitering the positions of the miners.

A machine gun nest on Hewitt creek guarded by four deputy sheriffs, was surprised and the deputies made prisoners of the miners, who captured the machine gun with some high powered rifles and ammunition.
